In freak accident, Uttarakhand bank guard dies after gun goes off as bike rams him

Haldwani, In a freak accident, a bank security guard died after his gun went off as he fell following a collision with a bike while crossing a road on Tuesday, police said. The bullet hit his leg. He was rushed to a hospital where he died late in the evening. CM Rawat, inspector of Kashipur police station in US Nagar said the security guard of Central Bank of India was injured in an accidental firing from his own gun following an accident while crossing the road on Tuesday. Rawat said the guard was identified as Virendra Rawat resident of Ramnagar in Nainital district. He was rushed to the government hospital by bank staff members. "The guard was crossing the road in front of the bank when he was hit by a speeding bike. As he fell, his double-barrel gun hit the road and its strap entangled with the trigger and a bullet was fired. The bullet hit his leg," Rawat said. "We have apprehended three persons, who were on the bike that hit the guard," he said.

Rajesh Bhatt, additional superintendent of police said the security guard died due to excessive bleeding at the hospital late Tuesday evening. "His body has been sent for post-mortem," he said.

Industrialist commits suicide near Punjab's Goraya town

Jalandhar, 39-year-old industrialist committed suicide by shooting himself with his licensed weapon at his native village near Goraya town in Jalandhar district on Wednesday. Police said he was rushed to the civil hospital in Phagwara before being referred to a private hospital due to his critical condition. He was operated upon and the bullet removed but he died around 12.30pm. While the victim was the director of an automobile parts manufacturing company, his father is the firm's managing director. Goraya station house officer Hardeep Singh said that the statements of the family members are to be recorded to ascertain the reason behind his taking the extreme step.

Bada Business Scripts Lockdown History: Clocks 5 World Records within 6 Months

Ahmadabad, Indian EdTech startup Bada Business has scripted history by becoming the world's first company to grab five World Records in online learning. The back-to-back World Records were achieved by a series of business training sessions during the COVID induced lockdown as Bada Business infused all its energy into training Indian MSMEs and helping them survive the crisis.

"It is a matter of great pride for us to be able to put India's rapidly growing EdTech industry on the global map through these achievements. We are the only organization in the world with 5 world records to our credit. We launched a business skill training program in April, 2020 after gauging the need for helping businesses attune themselves to the new normal. After a massive response to our first business learning session helped us achieve the first World Record, every successive session attracted even more numbers. Our initiatives have been able to mobilize India's SME community in record numbers at a time of unprecedented economic crisis. Through our business skill training initiatives over the past six months we have been able to provide training to over 1 crore people," said Dr Vivek Bindra, CEO & Founder, Bada Business.

The record breaking online business learning events were delivered by eminent motivational speaker and business trainer Dr Vivek Bindra, who is Founder and CEO of Bada Business. The skill building sessions witnessed record participation of India's entrepreneurial community and were attended by as many as 1 crore participants cumulatively. (19-10)

Woman shot dead by stalker, murder caught on camera

Gurugram, A 20-year-old college student was shot dead on Monday by her stalker and his friend after a botched abduction attempt outside her college in Haryana's Ballabhgarh, police said, in a chilling incident that sent shock waves across the state and triggered protests by her classmates. Images of the two suspects — officials said one of them is politically connected — were caught in CCTV footage of daylight murder; the duo was arrested from Nuh on Tuesday after a massive search operation, according to police. On Monday afternoon, Touseef Ahmad, a resident of Kabeer Nagar in Sohna, and his friend, Rahaan (who goes by one name only), a resident of Riwasan in Nuh, arrived in a Hyundai i20 and tried to force Nikita Tomar, a B Com final-year student, into the vehicle as she came out of Aggarwal College after writing an exam, police added. After their attempt failed, Touseef chased her down and shot her in the head from a close range around 3.48pm, even as people passed by, showed the video. The suspects escaped from the crime scene, leaving Tomar, who was accompanied by a friend, in a pool of blood.

Raysut Maldives Cement JV Formed; Acquisition of Lafarge Holcim Stake Completed

Ahmedabad, Oman's largest cement manufacturer, Raysut Cement Company (RCC), said it has closed the deal of acquiring 75 per cent of LafargeHolcim's cement terminal at Thilafushi Island in Maldives, and a new joint venture - Raysut Maldives Cement Pvt. Ltd. - has been formed. "This is a milestone investment for Raysut since the cement major will be pitching into a market supplied currently by other players from South Asia. It is also a significant move reinforcing its strategy to diversify from only being a South Oman based player to grow into a global player in the cement industry, RCC in Maldives will be competing with cement players from India, Indonesia and Malaysia" said Acting Deputy Group CEO, Mr. Salim

Ahmed Alawi Al Ibrahim. The new entity with State Trading Organization (STO) of Maldives owning 25 per cent has plans to expand the terminal's capacity, currently 75,000 tons per annum, by more than 100 per cent in future to over 200,000 tons per annum. This acquisition opens a corridor of trade between Oman and Maldives not only in the cement industry with Raysut Cement but also in other areas which will benefit both economies. Raysut cement are proud to have opened this new economic relationship. (19-10)

Rajasthan Wine freezer case: Victim's kin tell cops not to take action

Jaipur, The family members have taken a U-turn in the case of a charred body of a 23-year-old man found from a wine shop's deep freeze in Kumpur village of Alwar district on Sunday by filing an application, a copy of which HT has seen, that no action should be taken against the accused. However, police will continue with its probe, officials said. "My brother had slept inside the container and locked himself and due to the fire, he died in an accident. Earlier, we thought that it was done by the owners of the wine shop but when we enquired on their role, we found nothing on them. Hence, I request that no action should be taken against the owners," the application filed by the brother of the accused said.

When a family member was asked whether they have taken the case back under any pressure, he hesitantly said, "When we enquired their role didn't surface," Ram Moorthy Joshi, superintendent of police, Bhiwadi, said the police that they will continue the investigation on the merits of evidences. The deceased, Kamal Kishor, used to work as a salesman at the wine shop.
